

Strict Criteria: An injection counts as recovered only if it falls within 1.5 pixels of ground truth and reproduces the exact morphological class. Fading and brightening transients reach $> 95\%$ recovery above 7σ; slow movers ($\mu \leq 2''$/yr) have lower recall (56%) due to PSF overlap blurring the dipole.